

2026 National Corporate Member Benefits

Empowering corporations to build inclusive, innovative, and enterprise-ready supply chains.

The 2026 WBENC Corporate Membership empowers corporations to drive purpose with performance, strengthening supplier ecosystems, advancing equitable economic growth, and fueling sustainable business innovation. Through targeted education, strategic connections, and high-impact collaboration, WBENC serves as the trusted partner for organizations committed to building inclusive, enterprise-ready supply chains.

Supply Base Growth

- Curated Supplier Connections at national events
- Supplier Pitch Competition Series
- Access to 21,000+ certified women, small and medium businesses via WBENCLink2.0
- Insights on WBENC data, including trends and outcomes of economic impact

Supplier Readiness and Development

- WBENC delivers 27+ programs designed to support entrepreneurs at every stage of their business journey, including:
 - Entrepreneur Incubators
 - Industry Accelerators
 - Executive Education
 - Capital & Scalability Readiness
 - Tailored Signature Programs
 - Facilitating Access to Capital Connections

Professional Development

- Supplier Inclusion Education with a focus on Responsible AI, Storytelling and Corporate Innovation
- Learning Cohorts designed to foster collaboration and peer-to-peer learning
- C-Suite Summits (CPO, CHRO, CMO, etc.) to align emerging trends and leadership priorities

Networking & Engagement

- WBENC team available for your internal engagements to share data and insights into supplier inclusion
- Opportunity to lead or support community impact initiatives across the WBENC Network
- Discounted registration and sponsorship opportunities at the WBENC National Conference - the largest conference for women's business enterprises, small businesses, and corporations, featuring 4,000+ attendees
- Invitation to the NBIC Unity Week, hosted by the nation's leading business organizations, a celebration of impact, opportunity, and collaboration